The parade pays tribute to the Irish, their culture & history. Partisan political or controversial messages are not allowed. This is a family oriented activity. Rain or shine, snow or hail, the Syracuse St. Patrick's Parade begins at Noon on Saturday. Late arrivals will lose their place in line and will be moved further back. For spectators' safety no throwing anything from the floats. Due to the televised nature of this event, it is important that units do not stop or break ranks--remain in your designated position at all times. Alcoholic beverages are not allowed and open container laws will be enforced by active duty police officers. All participants must abide by the General Rules and Regulations for entries and floats (your signature below acknowledges that you will adhere to all rules and regulations).
